Criminal Action No. 1:19-cr-10081-IT

ORDER

March 9, 2022

TALWANI, D.J.

Before the court is Defendant Jovan Vavic's Motion to Dismiss, or at a Minimum, for Discovery and an Evidentiary Hearing Based on Cumulative Government Misconduct [Doc. No. 1095]. In support of dismissal or discovery, Vavic argues that (1) the government was aware that William "Rick" Singer was involved in a variety of ongoing criminal activities, including money laundering, and (2) the government failed to turn over exculpatory evidence, which defense counsel learned of only one week prior to trial. The government denies withholding any such evidence and counters that Vavic's assertion is unsupported.

Based on the evidence before the court, see Letter [Doc. No. 1090]; Def's Exhibits [Docs. No. 1096-1—1096-11], the court concludes that there is not a sufficient basis to support a finding of government misconduct. As has been a refrain throughout these proceedings, though, there is a sufficient basis for concern as to Singer's credibility. To the extent that the government intends to offer Singer's out-of-court statements at trial, the court anticipates carefully balancing the relevance of the evidence and the possibility of unfair prejudice or misleading the jury. See Fed. R. Evid. 403.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
